Terra Square End Table

The Terra End Table is a beautiful example of expert craftsmanship and modern design. Its surface is adorned with intricate straw marquetry in natural brown tones, hand-applied to create a captivating pattern that is brought to life by a high-gloss finish. The table's base features lacquered black on the inside of the legs, offering a subtle contrast that adds depth and dimension to the piece. The Terra End Table maintains a sleek, minimalist profile while serving as a striking accent in the home.
