Londonderry Green Table Lamp

The baluster shape and Ming-Dynasty ornamentations on the Londonderry Green Table Lamp bring it a classic Chinoiserie feel that is echoed by the double-trimmed shade. The porcelain body is a luminous sage green color that reflects its timeless style. An antique brass riser between the optic crystal base and the lamp's body matches the cap that sits just below the shade. An optic crystal finial complements the base to bring cohesion to the design.
