Bonnington Chandelier in Hand Rubbed Brass with Crystal

The Bonnington by AERIN features elongated crystals that provide both sparkle and style. Inspired by mid-century modern design, the Bonnington is a stunning addition to any home. Whether suspended from a stylized chain or adorning a wall, various sizes and metal finishes can bring a sense of occasion to smaller and medium-sized rooms as well as hallways. The signature hand-cut crystals are striking in their arrangement and will embellish any space with timeless glamour.
